Summary of Findings:

The cemetery register for the Nine Elms Military Cemetery, Thelus, records the concentration of many graves from numerous small, battlefield cemeteries. One of those battlefield cemeteries was known as CA26. The CWGC makes this statement concerning concentrations into the Nine Elms Military Cemetery from CA26: "GRAVE CA 26, ROCLINCOURT, by the roadside a little South of Nine Elms Cemetery, in which were buried 72 soldiers of the 5th Battalion who fell on the 9th April 1917." The records show that there are 70 named soldiers of the 5th Battalion in the main concentration from CA26 to Nine Elms Military Cemetery (68 inhabited graves and 2 special memorials). Burial records state that there are two other 5th Battalion men that were buried in CA26: Sergeant L. J. McGhan #466061 and Private G. Prior #907538. There are no other men of the 5th Battalion recorded as having been buried in CA26.

Details of Findings:

This report differs from many others submitted as part of the CEFSG “Unknowns Project”. The findings reported herein are based on the review of the records of the CWGC to identify the names of two (2) men of the 5th Canadian Infantry Battalion that were concentrated from the Divisional Burial Ground CA26 to the Nine Elms Military Cemetery, Thelus. As such, this report does not involve a detailed examination of war diaries, trench maps and battlefield burial sites. In the alternative it provides an analysis of the existing information to provide the names of the two unknown soldiers.

A detailed analysis of all of the records relating to the concentration of the men of the 5th Infantry Battalion of the Canadian Expeditionary Force has allowed for the identification of the two (2) men who were initially buried at the Divisional Battlefield Cemetery CA26 and later concentrated into the Nine Elms Military Cemetery, Thelus.

The findings are based on the following:

1. The “Concentrations Exhumations and Re-burials Burial Return” (COG-BR) documents 2618053, 2618054 and 2618055 record the concentration of 66 men of the 5th Battalion from CA26 (Attachment #1). Excluded from the list of 67 men is Private N. A. Pentecost # 201467 (Grave 3.B.13) of the 1st Canadian Battalion, whose record reports that he was not buried at 51b.A.16.d.6.1 (CA26) but at 51b.A.17.a.10.75. We also know that Corporal S. A. Stuart #925072 (Special Memorial 1) and Private D. A. McDonald #198404 (Grave 1.D.8) were also initially buried in CA26 and then concentrated to Nine Elms Military Cemetery, Thelus.
2. There are numerous E-13 War Graves Registers that relate to the men that were initially buried at the 5th Battalion battlefield burial ground known as CA26. The file for Corporal S. A. Stuart #925072 (Special Memorial 1) is typical of those files (Attachment #2). The burial locations generally refer to a location 1 ¼ to 1 ½ miles south east of Neuville St.Vaast and 3 miles north of Arras. The trench map coordinates vary slightly but are all in the close vicinity of 51b.A.16.d.6.1. The file of Stuart is important to this case, as he had a “Special Memorial B – Believed to be buried in this cemetery”. It is our contention that a Special Memorial (A, B, or C) should also appear in the Nine Elms Military Cemetery for each of Sergeant L. J. McGhan #466061 and Private George Prior #907538.
3. There are 13 men of the 5th Battalion listed on the Vimy Memorial for the period of April 9th to 12th 1917. The only one of these that did not fall on the 9th April, as per the CA26 definition by the CWGC, was Private H. S. Roe #907372, who we believe was attached to another unit, as he was killed at Hill 145 on 10th April and reported buried in the vicinity of 36c.S.16.c.3.2. Of the remaining 12 men, two (2) are clearly identified as having been buried in the CA26 5th Battalion burial ground (Attachment #3).

4. The two men identified as having been buried at CA26 that were concentrated into the Nine Elms Military Cemetery, but are not listed in the Cemetery Register are Sergeant L. J. McGhan #466061 and Private George Prior #907538 (Attachment #4). None of the other men listed on the Vimy Memorial for the period of concentration into Nine Elms Military Cemetery are recorded as having knowingly been buried at CA26.
5. The Headstone Register (HR) for the Nine Elms Military Cemetery does not list all the men that are reported as being of the 5th Canadian Infantry Battalion from CA26, as shown on the COG-BR (Attachment #5). These differ between the HR and the COG-BR:
 - 3.A.1 A Canadian Regiment
 - 3.A.4 A Canadian Regiment
 - 3.A.5 A Canadian Regiment
 - 3.A.6 A Canadian Regiment

The graves that are specifically listed as having a man of the 5th Battalion from CA26 are:

- 3.A.11 5th Bn. Canadian Inf.
- 3.B.7 5th Bn. Canadian Inf.

Having only two (2) graves known to belong to men of the 5th Battalion Canadian Infantry would agree precisely with the War Graves Register for Sergeant L. J. McGhan #466061 and Private George Prior #907538. There is insufficient information to allow us to determine which man is buried in the specific grave.

6. There were a total of 95 men of the 5th Infantry Battalion killed in action on 9 April 1917, as recorded by the CWGC. The location of the burial or memorial for this group is summarized as: (Attachment #6)
 - Vimy Memorial = 12
 - Quatre-Vents Military Cemetery = 4
 - Barlin Communal Cemetery Extension = 1
 - Ecoivres Military Cemetery = 8
 - Nine Elms Military Cemetery = 70 (68 in graves, 2 as special memorials)

The two (2) men on the special memorials are important as it means that their names are not on the Vimy Memorial, so whether they are, or are not, buried in the cemetery is immaterial to the case.

The specifics of the 70 in the Nine Elms Military Cemetery is summarized as:

- known 5th Bn. graves in Nine Elms 20+23+23 = 66 (confirmed on main CA26 list)
- known grave of McDonald in 1.D.8 = 1 (recorded as CA26)
- known grave of Butterworth in 5.A.11 = 1 (exhumed 51b.A.23.b.90.90)

TOTAL Inhabited Graves = 68

- Special Memorials = 2 (Stuart CA26; Berry CA39)

TOTAL Recorded as Nine Elms = 68+2 = 70

TOTAL Recorded as CA26 = 66+1 (McDonald)+1 (Stuart) = 68

The UNKNOWNNS (6) suspected of being in CA26 are listed in 3.A.1, 3.A.4, 3.A.5, 3.A.6, 3.A.11 and 3.B.7. There is an additional UNKNOWN 5th Battalion man in 1.D.2. The two 5th Battalion men not found in CA26 were Butterworth and Berry. As noted previously, the CWGC Headstone Registers suggested that the information on the COG-BR could not be verified and that there were only two (2) men of the 5th Battalion from CA26 that were not identified (3.a.11 AND 3.b.7).

The CWGC records specifically state that 72 men were concentrated from CA26 to the Nine Elms Military Cemetery. Only 68 are recorded as being buried in a known grave in the cemetery, or having a special memorial indicating the actual grave is unknown. The analysis provides strong evidence that the 2 missing men (Sergeant L. J. McGhan #466061 and Private George Prior #907538) with the CA26 burial coordinates need to be taken off the Vimy Memorial and moved to Special Memorials at the Nine Elms Military Cemetery. The CWGC records indicate they would be in Plot 3 (3.A.11 & 3.B.7) but since we cannot confirm which row, then they would be "Special Memorial C - "Buried Near this Spot"", "Special Memorial A - Buried elsewhere in this cemetery", or, as in the case of Stuart "Special Memorial B – Believed to be buried in this cemetery".

There are an additional 2 men who may have been buried at CA26, according to the COG-BR, but there is insufficient information to identify those men at this time. That is for the total of 72 men. Alternatively, if the Headstone Register (HR) is the verifiable document, there are only 70 men and they are all now known by name.

- total recorded in Nine Elms for CA26 = 68
- McGhan and Prior, as per the research reported herein = 2
- possible unknown men buried at CA26 and concentrated in Nine Elms = 2

TOTAL CA26 men in Nine Elms, as per CWGC = 72

The Graves Registration Report Forms (GRRF) do show agreement with the Headstone Registers (HR) that the only two “unknown” men of the 5th Infantry Battalion that were initially buried in CA26 and concentrated into the Nine Elms Military Cemetery, are to be found in Plot 3 Row A Grave 11 and Plot 3 Row B Grave 7. Unfortunately, we are unable to determine which man is in which grave. As the two graves are in adjoining rows and separated by only a short distance, it would be feasible to classify these as “Special Memorial C – Buried near this spot”, in which case Sergeant McGhan would be marked for 3.A.11 and Private Prior for 3.B.7, based on the alphabetic distinction process used by the CWGC.

Action Required:

This “Investigative Report” has been prepared in accordance with the procedures and criteria set out by the CWGC, should they wish to make any changes to the commemoration details (Attachment #7).

Although this was one of the most complex and time consuming investigations carried out in the case of the CEFSG “Unknowns Project”, the results are convincing as to the identification of the unknown men of CA26 that were concentrated into the Nine Elms Military Cemetery. There is no additional evidence to suggest that the men could be any other than Sergeant L. J. McGhan #466061 and Private George Prior #907538.

Note: The investigation into the unknown men of the 5th Canadian Infantry Battalion was initiated as a result of a detailed 2 year investigation by the CEFSG into the missing men buried in the Nine Elms Military Cemetery that had initially been buried in the Divisional battlefield cemetery known as CA40. As such, a great deal of the evidence on this case is intertwined in the case of CA40. A review of that information may provide the reader with additional insight into this case at CA26.

ATTACHMENT #7

This “Reporting and Review” attachment is provided to assist all parties in the submission of an investigative report related to the identification of the burial location, or headstone markings, of a member of the Canadian Expeditionary Force (CEF) during the Great War 1914-1921. The Commonwealth War Graves Commission (CWGC) receives a copy of this report in the event they wish to make changes to the commemoration details. In order to alter the records, the CWGC has set out their criteria for the procedure and submission of cases for review, as detailed below. The CWGC is under no obligation to make changes based on a report.

Procedure:	Guideline Criteria for Submission:
All new identification cases need to be assessed in the first instance by the Canadian Agency (CA) and submissions should go to their office directly. After an initial assessment, if the Agency feels that the case is compelling, they will then pass all the documentation to the Commemorations Team at the Commission's Head Office. Head Office will then review the case and inform the CA of their findings. The Canadian authorities will then decide whether or not any changes to the arrangements for commemoration are required and inform the Commission accordingly.	Cases need to present clear and convincing evidence to prove the identity of a casualty and must not be based on assumption or speculation. The Commission's Commemoration Team will also consider whether the findings of a better informed contemporary investigation are being revisited and if there is any new evidence to consider. By way of example, it is unlikely that the Commission would support a revision of the arrangements for the commemoration where it is apparent that no new evidence is being presented and, a better informed previous decision is being revisited some 100 years later.

The following have participated in the preparation, review and submission of this report on a voluntary basis. Those noted below have read the investigative report and compared it to the criteria set out by the CWGC, as a guiding principle, and have agreed to have their name included as part of the review team. The CWGC may contact any of the reviewers at the e-mail address provided below.
